

March Digital Exhibit Spotlight

03/23/2020

Cache Valley: An Air-minded Community is a digital exhibit that is designed to make people aware of the rich aviation heritage that exists in Cache Valley. Air-mindedness of locals has helped shape Cache Valley for the better and this exhibit illustrates how. The history of aviation in Cache Valley began in 1911 and this exhibit follows the major changes until 1960. From pioneers in the field to World War II pilots to postwar flying changes, this exhibit covers it all.
