USU Libraries StudyWell initiative is offering several academic and emotional support activities for Midterms. We are offering Extended Online Chat hours for three days during the week to help students with their research projects, as well as providing two fun stress relief activities for students!

Extended Online Chat Hours

- Dates: October 14, 15, and 16 (Tuesday–Thursday)
- Time: 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM

These additional evening hours provide students with real-time support from faculty and staff when they're most likely to need it—outside of typical business hours. Whether you're stuck on citations or narrowing a topic, we're here to help relieve mid-semester stress. Be ready to share your course info, instructor name, and project type to get the best help possible.

Ghost Paintings

- Date: Monday, October 13th
- Time: 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- Location: Room 101, Merrill-Cazier Library

Drop in and paint ghostly apparitions onto vintage snapshots from USU Libraries' Special Collections & Archives. This creative escape brings a little haunted history to your midterms.

Spooky Team Trivia

- Date: Wednesday, October 14th
- Time: 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM
- Location: Room 101, Merrill-Cazier Library

Gather a team of 2–6 members to compete in a haunting trivia competition. Costumes optional. Bragging rights guaranteed. Please register in advance to secure your spot.
