Take a Break at the Library

April 22–24 | Room 122, Merrill-Cazier Library

Contact: Erin Davis, Head of User Experience and Engagement | erin.davis@usu.edu

Finals week is almost here — and USU Libraries wants to help you recharge. Join us for Take a Break at the Library, a series of drop-in events designed to help students relax, unwind, and find support before and during finals.

Whether you need to step away from your screen, enjoy a snack, or connect with campus resources, we've got something for you. All events are held in Room 122.

Event Schedule

- Wednesday, April 22 | 2–3 PM | Room 122
Stop by for coloring and snacks. A low-key way to decompress before finals week kicks off.
- Thursday, April 23 | 1–4 PM | Room 122
Take a break from screens and enjoy a lineup of stress-free, screen-free activities.

- Friday, April 24 | 2–3 PM | Room 122
Close out the week with another round of coloring and snacks. You've earned it.

What's Happening on April 23

Thursday's event is packed with activities and campus support. Drop in anytime between 1–4 PM for:

- Building with LEGO
- Puzzles
- Friendship bracelet making
- Crosswords & sudoku

You'll also find helpful campus partners on-site:

- USU Libraries
Stop by for research resources and library support.
- Peer Coaches from ABLE
Get study tips and academic strategies from fellow Aggies.
- USU CARE
Connect with wellness resources and get your questions answered.

Bonus: Chat with each service at Wednesday's event for a chance to earn an entry into a prize drawing!

All Take a Break events are free and open to USU students. No registration required — just show up.
