Statewide Library Survival Guide

Your Library. Wherever You Are.

Ben Dupuy, USU Libraries | ben.dupuy@usu.edu

No matter where you are in Utah, USU Libraries are there. Your A# and password are your key to unlocking access to a wealth of resources provided to you via the Libraries and supported by your tuition dollars.

Explore the links below to see everything available to you. From books to eBooks to databases to tutorials to more information on the research and writing process, the USU Libraries have you covered.

Sites to Know

- USU Libraries Homepage | Your starting point
- Statewide Library Resource Guide | Get started on your research assignment, learn how to cite sources, and so much more!
- Library Catalog | Find print and electronic books available from USU Libraries, as well as videos and other materials

- Articles & Databases | Check out USU Libraries articles and databases to quickly search for a database, or check out databases by subjects.
- ProQuest Central | This is a multidisciplinary collection of articles from scholarly journals, magazines, newspapers, and other sources.
- Researcher Services | A range of services to support scholars across the research lifecycle.
- Libby | Get eBooks and audiobooks on your smartphone, tablet, eReader, and other devices.

Get Books, Articles, and Documents Wherever You Are

Use your ILLiad account for:

- Interlibrary Loan | Request books and articles that USU doesn't own (excludes textbooks)
- Document Delivery | Get PDFs of articles or book chapters from USU library collections.
- Home Delivery | Request books to be delivered to your home for free if you live outside of Cache Valley (return shipping label included).
